

Snickers to the Rescue - Larry Holman

We had a cocker spaniel named Snickers! He loved to go in the fishing boat, kayak and even on my lap on the inner tube. He did not like to swim in the water! One day Jeanne and a friend took Snickers for a sail boat ride. About an hour later a boat came by our dock and informed me that they had turned the sailboat over and were stranded at the other end of the lake. I went to the rescue and when I came around the corner I started laughing as I saw the girls kicking in the water and the dog on top of the upside down sailboat.
